Lucky Astrology e-Newsletter
Jupiter and Uranus

Greetings, Family & Friends - As many of you know, we got married on Friday February 1, 2008, a very auspicious day in astrology. We picked that day (using a branch of astrology called electoral astrology) because it was so lucky -- Venus and Jupiter were making a very harmonious aspect.

This next couple months we are in the midst of a fun-filled and long lasting aspect - Jupiter is sextile to Uranus.

Who is Affected?
What does it mean?

All of us on Planet Earth
A hilarious & change-filled time

Where is it?	All over the whole world
When?	March 16, 2008 till June 2, 2008
Why?	Transiting Jupiter & Uranus are making a sextile aspect which has an effect on us.

This newsletter and the above graph points to a window of opportunity from March 16 through June 2 when the planets Jupiter and Uranus are making a connection. This is called an aspect. See a new page on our website, <http://www.luckyastrology.com/aspects.htm> which defines and explains aspects.

It's a Biggie! Suffice it to say that this current aspect is nine times as long lasting as usual, so it's huge. You have a choice now to connect in with it on a vibrational level so as to enjoy its harmonious effects over the next couple months.

It's up to you, though! It's not as if Jupiter/Uranus is going to grab you and take over your energy or personality. Instead, you have to choose to ride its vibrational coattails and set new daily habits based on what you learn. In fact you'll have lots of time-2-1/2 months-to identify what new qualities you want to emphasize and act on!

Sextile or Sex Tile? The Jupiter/Uranus aspect is a sextile, and no it doesn't mean we have sex on the tile :) . A sextile aspect indicates that two planets have a 60 degree angle causing a harmonious type aspect. Each planet in the sextile has qualities or characteristics associated with it that make synergistic, harmonious connections with the other. That's what we'll be exploring here with Jupiter/Uranus.

Jupiter Is the Planet of Expansion. Bring any thought, activity, trait, or behavior into this vibration and you will find it morph into something greater than before. Jupiterian energy is broadminded, optimistic, jovial, generous, lucky, fond of sports and good at conversation - expansive in all those ways. Tap into Jupiter's flow and you will definitely grow and learn! In fact, Jupiter rules higher education.

The Main Characteristics of Uranus are Humanitarianism and Unconventionalism. Two long words, hey? Yet they aptly describe the friendly, inventive, magnetic, original, outspoken, progressive, orphic, reformative, and unusual qualities of this vibration. Strange, odd, and weird may be other words that come to mind here and may describe in recent times inventors (e.g., Howard Hughes) and reformers (e.g. Eugene Debs). In addition, the Uranian qualities of friendliness and magnetism fit some people (e.g., FDR) that have transformed society.

Uranus adds uniqueness and spice to the Jupiterian humor and since the two are sextile, they are working in harmony, flowing together, complementing each other. So the uniqueness of Uranus mixes with the humor of Jupiter and there could be hilarity and unexpected humor in the ordinary or odd and extraordinary events of life.

Expanding Our Vision - So when we put together the Jupiter and Uranus characteristics into a harmonious and complementary sextile, we can tap into an energy that will expand or change our perspective. We can move from being stuck in a rut to developing a new vision for our lives. For example, perhaps the upcoming elections will propel some of us into working for a cause we believe in (Uranus) or towards election of the candidate with the most expansive vision (Jupiter) for the next four years.

Intuition, hunches or gut feelings can come true at this time. One way to experiment with intuition and get enough experience to make it a habit, is to ask ourselves out loud, "What's in the mail box?" before we go check. Our little quiet voice within comes up with answers very quickly, even before we finish asking the question.

Uranus on the Internet The Uranus sextile influence could mean participating in humanitarian and green or solar classes - perhaps using the Internet. Uranus also has connections with electronics, so the world wide web is a natural to explore. We sure have a good example of the Internet's expansion and use right now. Oprah's "New Earth" Class with Eckhart Tolle is about the expansion of learning (Jupiter) to re-shape people's thinking and spiritual focus through the Internet (Uranus).

Time to Giggle! By choosing to follow the Jupiter/Uranus energy, we can use laughter and humor to change awkward situations. A serious discussion can bring on comic relief, or unexpected humor can arise from a turn of phrase or tangled thought. Different and unusual situations could strike our funny bone, as could mistakes and miscues. Where once we would have gotten angry over something, somehow the same odd behavior by another now tickles us. We can make that choice!

A Coincidence of Timing? In the field of astrology, we have an example of a coincidental alignment - the Jupiter/Uranus aspect is occurring at the same time as the United Astrology Conference, which is taking place in May in Denver. What better time to hold astrology (a Uranus characteristic) classes ( a Jupiter trait). In addition, Uranus emphasizes truth, facts and experiments so these classes and discussions could very well break new ground in astrology, developing interesting or far out theories and inspiring visions for it.

UFO, Anyone? Because of the strange qualities of Uranus, we could hear of more UFO sightings at this time. At least there could be wide interest in space travel and aliens. And speaking of airy fairy things - it's also possible at this time to dream of a new vision for world freedom -- very Jupiterian and Uranian too.

Some Examples to Use Today. There is so much more that could be said about the qualities of both these planets and their synergistic interaction. Each of the qualities of the planets can be creatively applied in everyday life as a person sees fit. Take the Uranus word "reform" and Jupiter "humor." Today as we go to work, we can think about how those two words can energize our day. We can, perhaps, "re-form" our desk/work area, and put a clown on our file cabinet to remind us to have fun. Or we can decide to reform (re-shape) our relationship with a co-worker with a light-hearted but heartfelt approach to his/her daily strident emails. Each day, we can use words from the aspect to change our daily habits and energize our spirit.

Thank you so much for your feedback and comments on our newsletter in the past. For further information on this particular aspect - google "Jupiter sextile Uranus" and "Jupiter trine Uranus".
